- b. Establishment of Berlin as a free city.
 - c. Evacuation of all occupation troops.
 - d. Provisions for a victualling radius of at least 50 kms.
 - e. Fifteen kilometer-wide neutral supply corridor to the West.
 - f. The policing of Berlin and the corridor by the United Nations troops and police.
7. The SMA, however, considered such a step by the USA to be extremely unlikely, so that Berlin would fall in 1948.
